

Table of Contents

SECTION ONE – Teaching Journals

Increasing Student Participation in 3/2/1 Fluency Activities	3
Jason D. Arndt
Building Confidence: Enabling Low-level Learners to Participate Effectively in English Discussion Class	8
Julia Fearn-Wannan
From Zero to the Teacher's Hero	13
Polina Gordyshevskaya
Optimizing Feedback and Promoting Accountability: A Reflection	19
Marc Hasstedt
Classroom Management in CLT Classes in Japan ..	25
Kio Iwai
Critical Reflection Through Journal Writing: A Case Study	31
Takeshi Kajigaya
Positive Feedback Within a Positive Atmosphere to Promote L2 Use	38
Alan Kean
Facilitating Target Language Use in a Monolingual Class	43
Shoko Kita
Motivation and Low-proficiency Learner Archetypes: A Retrodictive Qualitative Modelling Approach to Journaling	50
Michael Peragine
A Class of Introverts: Tracking Shy Students in a Teaching Journal	57
Jamie G. Sturges
Building a Positive Environment: Reflecting on Interventions in the Classroom	63
Hami Suzuki
The Year of Reflecting Dangerously: Back to Basics	70
Eunice Tan

Integrating Introverted Learners	75
Matthew Webster

SECTION TWO – Classroom Activities

Transformative Learning Theory in an EDC Context	81
Devon Arthurson

Integrating Auto-input into Function Presentation Activities for High Level Students	88
Anna Bordilovskaya

Using Reflective Writing as a Learner Tool in Discussion Class	94
Nicole Gallagher

“Talking with Friends” and “Improving my TOEIC Score”: A Task for Exploring Student Motivation in English Discussion Classes	102
Matthew Alexander Hartley

An End-of-Semester Activity to Promote Sustainable Learning	107
Ian Hurrell

Brainstorming for a Focus on Form	114
Hugh Kirkwood

Comprehension and Attitudes Towards Pragmatically Functional Language: In-class Surveys	124
Tobias Long

Brainstorming Discussion Content	133
Anna Loseva

The Speed Round: An Activity for Developing Automaticity	142
Christopher Nicklin

Encouraging Balanced Participation in Group Discussions	149
Sam Reid

Self-assessment in Fluency Activities	157
Tracy-ann Tsuruoka

Group Self-assessment and Goal Setting in English Discussion Classes	162
Chris Whiffin

SECTION THREE – Classroom Research

Multicultural Classrooms: A Case Study of Two International Students in English Discussion Class	173
Brad Barker

Demonstrating Need for a List of Frequently Requested Lexical Items in Content-Based English Discussion	183
Andrew G. Brown

Autonomy and Choice in Fluency Activities	187
Christopher Mattson

Are you Pinterested? A Study into an Online Collaborative Homework Task	194
Paul McEntee

Tracking Dynamic Changes in Student Motivation in the English Discussion Classroom	201
Matthew J. McLaughlin

The C in EFL	209
Aaron Francis Ward

A Conversation Analysis of Repair Strategies in Multilingual English Discussion Classes	219
Travis West

SECTION FOUR – Reflective Practice

One Year In: Reflections of a New Academic Manager	231
Peter Brereton

Developing a Checklist for Consistent Board Work	236
Jonathan Buck

Reflection on Teaching Approach	241
Jeff Holtzkenner

Teacher as Auteur: A Multi-Year Reflection on Teacher Motivation, Creativity, Constraints, and Collaboration 247
Nick Kasperek

One Last Look Back: A Comprehensive Reflection 254
Brandon Narasaki

SECTION FIVE – Program Development

Reflective Teacher Training: Uniting Theory with Practice 261
Jamie Lesley

Communication Skills for Strategic Competence 273
Matthew Y. Schaefer